On the right side of the navigation bar, there is a 'News: News Story' link and a search icon. Below the navigation bar, the date and time '01/27/2022 07:31:51 [ACX]' are displayed. The main headline reads 'PlatoData, Government Blockchain Association (GBA) Form Alliance'. Below the headline, there is a sub-headline: 'PlatoData, Government Blockchain Association (GBA) Form Alliance to Support the Growing GBA Community'. The main body of the article begins with the text: 'Washington, D.C., Jan 27, 2022 - (ACN Newswire) - PlatoData and the Government Blockchain Association (GBA) has formed an alliance to support the growing GBA community. The partnership extends the working relationship between both organizations across Plato's growing data ecosystem. Plato's curated approach to both data intelligence, press syndication and engagement strategy was setup to support communities throughout the blockchain ecosystem.' Below this, there is a quote: '"It's a great honor to be part of such a wonderful and entrenched organization such as the GBA," stated Bryan Feinberg CEO of Plato.' The article concludes with another quote: '"The Impact GBA is playing across the Government Enterprise market is substantial'. At the bottom of the screenshot, there is a footer with various technical details including 'Australia 61 2 9777 8600', 'Brazil 55 11 5511 3395 9000', 'Europe 44 20 7330 7500', 'Germany 49 69 9204 1310', 'Hong Kong 852 3477 6000', 'Japan 81 3 4555 8300', 'Singapore 65 68 8513 1006', 'US 1 212 318 2006', 'SN 224664 HKT GMT+8:00 H444 7196 28-Jan-2022 12:18:29'.

Trintech Is the Only Financial Close Solution Provider with Certified Integrations Across All Microsoft Dynamics 365 Cloud ERP Platforms

DALLAS, TX, Jan 27, 2022 - (ACN Newswire) - Trintech, a leading global provider of integrated Record to Report software solutions for the Office of Finance, expands its partnership with Microsoft by announcing its newest integration into Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central. This expanded partnership makes Trintech's Adra Suite the only financial close solution with a certified Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central Connector and builds upon its already existing portfolio of Microsoft Connectors to support any Microsoft Dynamics customer regardless of version, past or present and on-premise or in the cloud.

With Microsoft playing a central operations role for thousands of companies, older versions of AX, Navision (NAV), Solomon, and Great Plains remain the daily lifeblood of these companies. Trintech integrates into every Dynamics version 東京, 2022年1月27日 - (JCN Newswire) - PlatoData and the Government Blockchain Association (GBA) has formed an alliance to support the growing GBA community. The partnership extends the working relationship between both organizations across Plato's growing data ecosystem. Plato's curated approach to both data intelligence, press syndication and engagement strategy was setup to support communities throughout the blockchain ecosystem.

"It's a great honor to be part of such a wonderful and entrenched organization such as the GBA," stated Bryan Feinberg CEO of Plato. "The Impact GBA is playing across the Government Enterprise market is substantial and represents what we consider a best of class opportunity to support the GBA community with integrated access to Plato's Data Platform. Our goal as a company is to help those communities in need of both awareness and understanding of the regulatory compliance our industry faces on a daily basis. Our plan is to extend Plato's extensive data repository to all GBA members and to support members with a full suite of news, analytics and electronic content syndication."

Gerard Dache, GBA's executive Director said, "We have had the pleasure of working with Plato over the past year

"It's a great honor to be part of such a wonderful and entrenched organization such as the GBA," stated Bryan Feinberg CEO of Plato. "The Impact GBA is playing across the Government Enterprise market is substantial and represents what we consider a best of class opportunity to support the GBA community with integrated access to Plato's Data Platform. Our goal as a company is to help those communities in need of both awareness and understanding of the regulatory compliance our industry faces on a daily basis. Our plan is to extend Plato's extensive data repository to all GBA members and to support members with a full suite of news, analytics and electronic content syndication."

PlatoData, Government Blockchain Association (GBA) Form Alliance to Support the Growing GBA Community

By: ACN Newswire

January 27, 2022 at 01:48 AM EST

Washington, D.C., Jan 27, 2022 - (ACN Newswire) - PlatoData and the Government Blockchain Association (GBA) has formed an alliance to support the growing GBA community. The partnership extends the working relationship between both organizations across Plato's growing data ecosystem. Plato's curated approach to both data intelligence, press syndication and engagement strategy was setup to support communities throughout the blockchain ecosystem.

"It's a great honor to be part of such a wonderful and entrenched organization such as the GBA," stated Bryan Feinberg CEO of Plato. "The Impact GBA is playing across the Government Enterprise market is substantial and represents what we consider a best of class opportunity to support the GBA community with integrated access to Plato's Data Platform. Our goal as a company is to help those communities in need of both awareness and understanding of the regulatory compliance our industry faces on a daily basis. Our plan is to extend Plato's extensive data repository to all GBA members and to support members with a full suite of news, analytics and electronic content syndication."

Gerard Dache, GBA's executive Director said, "We have had the pleasure of working with Plato over the past year and are extremely excited about what this opportunity represents to the GBA community. Plato represents everything we expect out of partner relationship as it relates to innovation, trust and a commitment to driving commercial adoption of Distributed Technologies and Regulatory Compliance. We are happy to extend out continued support the global community we represent."
