

What is ASSET TOKENIZATION and how does it work?

View Asset Tokenization on the following pages >>

1. WHAT IS ASSET TOKENIZATION?

Asset tokenization:

- A secure, digital version of a real-world asset is being minted
- Easy to transfer and divide the asset as needed
- Creates more transparency due to the data trail it produces, which can be easily tracked and monitored

Assets that can be tokenized:

Fiat Currencies

Commodities

Gift Cards &
Loyalty

Account
Receivables

2. WHY SHOULD COMPANIES TOKENIZE ASSETS?

Borderless

With tokenizing assets like gold, it can be transferred to anyone worldwide, as long as they are prepared to receive the transfer.

Fractional Assets

Assets can be split into an unlimited number of virtual shares.

Immutability

Buyers or investors need not worry that their products or investments might be lost due to fraud, theft, system errors, or corruption.

Safety

The records on a blockchain are secured through cryptography. Network participants have their private keys assigned to the transactions they make and act as personal digital signatures.

3. WHICH COMPANIES SHOULD TOKENIZE ASSETS?

For businesses with existing commodities or assets in need of liquidity:

- Metal & commodity dealers
- Art, antique, collectible dealers
- Jewelry & gem dealers
- Real estate investment companies
- Invoice financing companies

3. WHICH COMPANIES SHOULD TOKENIZE ASSETS?

For businesses with a lot of users / ecosystem activities / network effect:

- Exchanges & lending platforms
- Banks, FinTechs, payment firms
- Major brands w/ gift cards & loyalty
- Online marketplaces, e-commerce
- Retailers, wholesalers, merchants
